Welcome Letter

Welcome

Welcome to Essex Build 2025 - a celebration of innovation, collaboration, and the incredible potential of Essex's construction sector.

The event brings together the brightest minds, the most forward-thinking businesses, and the latest advancements in the industry. Whether you're here to explore cutting-edge solutions, gain insights from expert speakers, or connect with like-minded professionals, this Expo is your opportunity to be part of shaping the future of Essex.

Our exhibition area is brimming with exhibitors showcasing the very best in construction technology, materials, and services. From sustainable building practices to groundbreaking design, you'll find inspiration around every corner.

Alongside the exhibition, our programme of talks and panel discussions offers a chance to hear from industry leaders and policymakers.

These sessions are designed to spark ideas, challenge perspectives, and equip you with the knowledge to drive your projects forward.

Of course, no event like this would be complete without networking. Throughout the Expo, you'll have plenty of opportunities to connect with peers, forge new partnerships, and strengthen existing relationships.

In this spirit, I must say thank to our key partners - CITB, Federation of Master Builders, Attract & Engage and Constructing Excellence Essex Club - for helping make this ambitious

Thank you for attending Essex Build 2025

constructionalliance@essex.gov.uk
